

PAGE 262

Standards 1.1, 1.2, 2.1

Workbook Exercises 3, 5

► EXERCISE 3 ANSWERS

1. Cuius vīllā est vetusta?
2. Quōrum vīllae sunt vetustae?
3. Quae vīllā est vetusta?
4. Quae vīllae sunt vetustae?
5. Quem cōspicit senex?
6. Quōs amīcōs cōspicit senex?
7. Quī senex mē cōspicit?
8. Cui agricolae agrum dabis?
9. Quibus agricolīs agrōs dabis?
10. Quī agricolae agrōs mihi dabunt?
11. Quōcum ad vīllam ambulābis?
12. Quibuscum in vīllā manēbis?

► EXERCISE 4 ANSWERS

1. To whom does the steward say that he must repair many things in the villa?
Senecae vīlicus dīcit sē dēbēre multa in vīllā reparāre.
The steward says to Seneca that that he must repair many things in the villa.
2. What does the steward say that he neglects?
Vīlicus dīcit sē nihil neglegere.
The steward says that he neglects nothing.
3. What does Seneca think about himself?
Seneca cōgitat sē esse vetustum sicut vīllam.
Seneca thinks he is old just like <his> vīllā.
4. What leaves are in the trees?
Arborēs nōn habent folia.
The trees do not have leaves.
5. By whom were the trees always cared for and shall not ever be neglected?
Vīlicus arborēs semper cūrābat nec eās negleget.
The steward always cared for the trees and will not neglect them.
6. Which trees are said to be old?
Arborēs Senecae dicuntur esse vetustae.
Seneca's trees are said to be old.

©2016 Bolchazy-Carducci Publishers, Inc. this sample was created in ©2017 Bolchazy-Carducci Publishers, Inc. adoption preview not for distribution.
This document will expire May 31, 2017.