

► EXERCISE 3

Change the nōlī, nōlīte and infinitive commands into nē and the perfect subjunctive constructions and vice versa. Translate the commands.

Example: Nōlī mē relinquere!

Nē mē reliqueris! Do not leave me!

1. Nōlī lacrimās fundere!
2. Nōlīte in exercitum trahī!
3. Nē hās discipulās dēcēperis!
4. Nōlīte hērēdem tam saepe laudāre!
5. Nē aurum meum perdideris!
6. Nē dē victōribus tam multum scripseritis!

The Ponte Vecchio, Italian for “Old Bridge,” in Florence; its present form dates from 1345 when it was rebuilt after floods destroyed the twelfth-century bridge twelve years prior. It is believed to be located where the Roman Via Cassia crossed the Arno River. Petrarch may well have shopped here as the bridge has always housed merchants.
