

COMPREHENSION QUESTIONS

1. How can you tell that Acosta considers the prediction of a “land larger than all Asia and Europe” amazing for Seneca’s day?
2. From what two sources does Acosta say Seneca knew about the existence of other worlds?
3. What result did Seneca think the hard work of men was going to bring?
4. How had Acosta dealt with the fact that he must report, and justify, geographical facts he has discovered that are in no way in agreement with the works of ancients held to be sacrosanct, especially Aristotle?
